Wisconsin Flora now available by email!

The Botanical Club of Wisconsin's newsletter, "Wisconsin Flora", is available to BCW members at its time of publication by email (as a PDF attachment). Adobe Acrobat Reader, available as a FREE download, Adobe Acrobat Reader allows your computer to open PDF files. Most of you probably have this on your computers already.

If you have not already responded because of non-current email addresses or you just don't turn on your computer very often, PLEASE email me bcwlynn@frontiernet.net with ONE of the following messages:

YES - I'd like to receive Wisconsin Flora by email.
NO - I would like to continue to receive a paper copy of Wisconsin Flora.

About The Wisconsin Flora...

Wisconsin Flora is published quarterly by the Botanical Club of Wisconsin. Its purpose is to provide BCW members with timely news about Wisconsin plants, field trips, and meetings and to present brief articles of interest to Wisconsin's plant enthusiasts. Contributions are welcome and should be emailed to the Editor, Lynn White: bcwlynn@frontiernet.net

2008 Membership Dues

If your mailing label has the year 2007 or earlier, its time to renew your membership. Regular dues are $10 (still a bargain!), $5 for students, which covers the January to December calendar year.

For a renewal form, click:
